Leading stocks opened with general cedines, following the lead of London, those markets manifested some further disturbance of the Balkan situation. whose markets manifested some further disturbance of the Balkan situation. Partial recovery from the low level of the morning was shown at midday, especially by Reading and United States Steel, but strength was most conspicuous in such insues as Wheeling and Lake Erie, People's Gas, California Petroleum, National Lead and the local Tractions.

Specialities as a whole were weak and in light demand. American Best Sugar. American Sugar, Woolworth and similar issues recorded declines of 1 to almost 3 points. The market languished in the last hour, closing with no material changes from the opening.

The money market reflected the dull dealings now prevailing in the securative market.
